WHO WE ARE

The Bryan Symphony Orchestra is located in Cookeville, Tennessee. The only professional symphony outside of a metropolitan area in the state, the non-profit Bryan Symphony Orchestra Association, in partnership with the School of Music at Tennessee Tech, strives to provide an orchestra of the highest artistic standards, to perform a broad range of repertoire for a wide and diverse audience, to provide quality educational experiences for all ages, and to serve as a leader in the cultural life of the Upper Cumberland Region.

WHAT WE DO

Your support allows the Bryan Symphony Orchestra to continue providing the artistic excellence for which our orchestra is known. Our concerts ensure that the Upper Cumberland community has access to a live symphonic orchestra experience. Our programming encompasses a wide range of repertoire to ensure that everyone's concert experience is enjoyable.

Your support of our organization's outreach and education will continue to provide our community with:

- Five subscription concerts that feature the region's best musicians, and renowned soloists from around the world.
- A free Outdoor Community Concert for all families of the Upper Cumberland to enjoy.
- Education Concerts that are planned to fit the curriculum for all fourth-grade students of Putnam, Cumberland, Warren, White and Jackson Counties.

WHY WE MATTER

Since its founding in 1963, the Bryan Symphony Orchestra has been committed to engage, educate, and enrich our community through the performance of live music.
